

DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

Morris Animal Foundation respects the privacy of our donors. We protect personal information. We will not sell or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

This policy applies to all information received by Morris Animal Foundation, both online and offline, on any Platform ("Platform", includes the Morris Animal Foundation website and mobile applications), as well as any electronic, written or oral communications.

To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation.

In order to invite new donors to help support the work of Morris Animal Foundation, we do participate in a nonprofit cooperative which shares information about the donation habits of supporters of various nonprofit organizations.

If you do not already appear in this co-op database, we will not share or add your personally identifying information to the co-op database. However, if your personally identifying information already appears, basic information about your gifts to Morris Animal Foundation will be shared. We never share your personally identifying information or credit card information with this donor database co-op, and we never share any information about anyone who does not already appear in the database.
